

The Eternal Lord of Hosts Lives Forever

And he said, take heed that ye be not deceived; for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them, (Luke 21:8).

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, (Jn 1:1). But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed, (Jam 1:25). Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God, (Heb 12:2).

For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him, (Luke 20:38). The Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of God, as the Word truly says. In testimony of his works, He is the Saviour and the Lord of lords. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things, (Rom. 1:22-23).

By the faith of Christ, looking unto Jesus and praying with the Word, believing that he sent his Word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions, (Ps 107:20); we bless the Lord the Almighty and the Creator of all, for his wonderful works and great mercy in keeping His promises.
